(a) Indira Awas Yojana (IAY):

(i) The State Government would ensure that the IAY houses would be distributed among BPL families from the approved waiting list, even if they belonged to communities other than the minority communities, strictly in order of their ranking in the list as per the IAY guidelines. Villages ranked highest on the basis of minority population in the blocks having the highest population of minorities, other than the minority community in majority, would be selected first. State share would be provided.

(ii) The list of the villages, along with the number of houses to be constructed, would be furnished by the State Government. To prevent duplication the Government of Meghalaya should ensure that the units funded under MsDP were reflected in the State Action Plan of the scheme and the Central Ministry concerned informed.

(b) Installation of hand pumps and construction of ring well:

(i) This would be approved subject to the condition that a formal confirmation was furnished by the State Government that the hamlets which were proposed to be covered were not already identified to be covered under ARWSP/Rajiv Gandhi Drinking Water Mission.

(ii) The State Government would ensure that these hand pumps and ring wells would be provided in such sourceless/inadequately-sourced villages having the highest proportion of minority community, other than the minority community in majority. The list of the villages where these hand pumps were to be installed would be furnished.

(iii) To prevent duplication, the Government of Meghalaya should ensure that the assets funded under MsDP were reflected in the State Action Plan of the scheme and the Central Department concerned informed.

(c) Construction of ACRs for lab and computer rooms in secondary schools:

(i) The State Government would ensure that the selection of secondary schools was made in blocks having the highest proportion of minority community, other than the minority community in majority and lab and computers were already available. State Government would provide a list of such schools.
